

Nuernberg Gets Worst Pasting Of War; Upsets Boast Of Nazi

By WILLIAM S. WHITE
London, Aug. 28 (AP)—Immense formations of British bombers said by coastal observers to be the greatest force ever sent over Germany bashed Nuernberg last night, throwing down hundreds of tons of explosives on that southern German industrial city and center of Nazidom.

The Air Ministry called it a "very heavy attack"—which meant that the British threw in an assault intended virtually to obliterate the target.

It was a night of wide operations from this great air base—with Mosquito attacks on the Ruhr, fighter and intruder sweeps against railroads and Axis airfields in France and the low countries. Thirty-three British bombers were lost.

1,100 Mile Jaunt
The Nuernberg attack was the RAF's second major assault of the week, Berlin having been blasted on a colossal scale Monday night, and with fire and bursting steel last night's raid answered the declaration by Nazi Labor Chief Robert Ley:

"Owing to its formidable position, Nuernberg is well-protected against air attacks."

It was a round-trip flight of about 1,100 miles—an operation of such tremendous forces as to stir the whole of England and particularly coastal watchers who heard the unbroken, muted growl of bomber engines for more than two hours. There was wide unofficial agreement that the RAF never before had thrown so much at the enemy across the channel at one time.

45,000 Homeless
Nuernberg, which has great Diesel plants and motor and electrical works, plainly had joined Berlin on the list of German cities to get the Hamburg treatment. It was last hit August 10 and after that attack it was estimated that 45,000 had been made homeless and 2,500 had been killed.

In the August 10 raid about 1,500 tons of high explosives and incendiaries were dropped on the city. There was every indication that last night's tonnage was much greater.

A Canadian group formed part of the Nuernberg force and two Canadian bombers were reported missing. Canadian Mosquito planes also participated last night in sorties over France and the low countries.

The German radio in a second broadcast claimed that 43 British planes were shot down over Nuernberg saying that "this number is expected to be increased." It added that "damage was done to buildings and the population suffered losses."

"Terror Planes"
A third series of Nazi bulletins—they were issued as thickly as on the day after the last Berlin attack upped the figure of British plane losses to "at least 62."

Berlin spoke of "American terror planes" participating with the British on the raid, but there was nothing in London to suggest that the American air force actually took part.

Shortly before the British formations swept out, U. S. Eighth Air Force Flying Fortresses, Marauders and fighters returned from large scale attacks against Axis airfields in France. Sixteen enemy fighters were reported destroyed in this daylight foray.

Nuernberg, in southeast Germany, 525 miles from Britain, has been raided seven times previously.

College Graduate Reported Wounded

First Lieut. James L. White, 25, Ardmore, a graduate of Gettysburg college with the class of 1941, has been reported as wounded in action. Following his graduation, Lt. White entered the service two days later as a second lieutenant in a tank corps. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Erskine L. White, and was captain of the Haverford township high school football team while a student there.

The wounded man is married. His brother, George R., who is a first lieutenant with the Marine Corps in the Pacific area, holds Purple Heart and Silver Star awards.

Plans Bus Line Out Of Gettysburg

L. H. Froek plans to establish a bus line between Gettysburg, Hanover and Abbotstown, it was learned today. Mr. Froek at present operates a bus line between Hanover and Littlestown.

The new bus between here and Hanover will begin operation sometime next week, Mr. Froek said in announcing that he had secured permission from the Public Service Commission to establish the service. Several years ago the Adams Transit company ran a bus line between Hanover and Gettysburg and Abbotstown, but that service has been discontinued.

FOUR RECEIVE PRISON TERMS IN COURT TODAY

One defendant was sentenced to the Eastern penitentiary and three others to the county jail in Adams county court this morning by Judge W. C. Sheely. Another of the men who faced the court during the quarterly sentence session drew a fine and a fourth was placed on probation.

Roy M. Laughman, Berwick township, who had been convicted earlier this week on three serious charges, was fined $5 and ordered to the Eastern pen for a term of not less than one year nor more than two years. He must pay the costs of the case and make weekly support payments for a child involved in the case.

Jail Sentences

Joseph Martin, Gettysburg R. 1, drew a two- to four-month term in the county jail in a public indecency case in which he had been found guilty in court this week. Martin must pay the costs of the case.

Paxton Redding, Gettysburg R. 2, convicted on two serious charges, was fined $100 and ordered to pay the costs, doctors' bills and a $2 weekly support order.

Emory P. Bankert, Littlestown, who had entered a nolle contendere plea to an assault and battery charge filed by his wife, drew a suspended sentence. He was placed on probation for one year and directed to pay the costs.

Bretzman Missing

Cletus Harold Clouser, Jr. and Edward Smith, both of Hanover, held on a car stealing charge with an additional charge of burglary against Clouser, were given jail terms. Clouser must serve six months on each charge but the terms will run concurrently. Smith's sentence is four months. Both must pay the costs.

Ralph Bretzman, York Springs, was called for sentence on two serious charges but was not in court. His $2,000 bond was ordered forfeited and a process was issued for his arrest.

George Simpson, York, held for his part in the holdup robbery of Coulson's garage at York Springs in December, 1938, was given a suspended sentence and was placed on probation for one year.

Grant Divorces

John Wills, Emmitsburg, charged with driving a truck without the owner's consent, was given a suspended sentence and turned over to the parole officer in Franklin county where he had previously been sentenced on a similar charge.

Two divorces were granted in court this morning. Both decrees were awarded on grounds of desertion. They were granted in the cases of Sarah Catherine Deshong Keefe, Biglerville, vs. Herbert Ephraim Keefe, McVeytown, and George W. Krammer, Tyrone township, from Flossie Brame, Hallem R. 1.

A petition asking that the decree pro confesso issued in the equity action of Harvey P. and Ruth B. Jones, and Ernestine Plummer, operating as the Elevation orchards, against George A. Shinham, Fairfield R. 1, be stricken from the records was received by the court from Shinham's attorney, Richard A. Brown, Esq. September 20 was set as the date for a hearing at which the plaintiffs are to show cause why the decree should not be set aside.

Property Transfers

B. F. and Grace Gallagher, Mt. Pleasant township, sold to the Hanover Trust company, a 79-acre property in Mt. Pleasant township.

Gilson and Elizabeth Monn, Germany township, sold to Lawrence Z. and Rhudove M. Foutz, Taneytown, a lot in Germany township.

The bride wore a two-piece Navy blue suit with matching accessories. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds and baby's breath.

Mrs. Naugle presented a brief piano recital preceding the ceremony during which Miss Mildred Naugle, sister of the bridegroom, sang "O Promise Me." The couple entered the church to the strains of the "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin. The "Wedding March" by Mendelssohn was used as the recessional.

MOST SCHOOLS IN COUNTY TO OPEN SEPT. 7

Most of Adams county's schools will open September 7, with August 30 the other most popular date, County Superintendent of Schools J. Floyd Slaybaugh announced today. Nineteen of the 34 county school districts, and Gettysburg, will open September 7 while schools in 12 districts will open next Monday. Two of the districts, Oxford and Union townships, will open September 6.

Upper county schools for the most part are opening September 7 to allow the children to take part in the harvesting of the peach crop before starting their school year.

Married Women Teaching

The county schools are in better position in regard to teachers this year than last, Superintendent Slaybaugh stated. A corps of 230 teachers, most of them married women, will be on hand to greet the children on the opening day of school. All of the teachers will hold accredited certificates. The number of men teachers will be lower this year than in previous years due to the call for men in the armed forces and industry. It was pointed out that the recent $300 increase of salary given by the state has held many of the teachers to posts which they had been considering abandoning because of the increased cost of living.

Resignation of one teacher and appointment of two others at a meeting of the Abbotstown school board Friday night was announced by Mr. Slaybaugh. Mrs. Ruth E. Bitner, Dillsburg, intermediate teacher at Abbotstown, has resigned to accept a similar position in the Wormleysburg schools, the board learned. The Abbotstown board accepted the resignation Friday and is seeking to fill the vacancy during the coming week prior to the opening of schools there September 7.

Miss Betty Jane Greiman, York, was elected by the Abbotstown board as part time teacher of music to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Miss Mary L. Pretz of Gettysburg. Miss Greiman will also teach music in Berwick, Reading and Oxford townships this year. She was graduated from West Chester State Teachers' college this spring.

Elect School Nurse

The Abbotstown board also elected Mrs. Wilda Wenk McBeth, Biglerville R. D., as part time school nurse for the coming year. The position of school nurse is entirely new in the Abbotstown school system. Mrs. McBeth, who will also be nurse in the Liberty and Menallen townships schools, has been a trained nurse since she graduated from Good Samaritan hospital, Lebanon, in 1935, going there for training after graduating from Biglerville high school.

The districts which will open school on Monday include Conewago, Franklin, Freedom, Hamilton, Hamiltown, Highland, Huntingdon, Latimore, Liberty, Reading, Straban and Tyrone townships and Fairfield.

Scheduled for opening September 7 are Abbotstown, Arentsville, Arentsville vocational, Bendersville, Berwick township, Biglerville, Butler township, Conewago Independent, Cumberland township, East Berlin, Germany township, Littlestown, McSherrystown, Menallen, Mt. Joy and Mt. Pleasant townships, New Oxford, York Springs and Gettysburg.

Little Aerial Opposition From Germans Over France

Eighth U. S. AAF Bomber Command Headquarters, Aug. 28 (AP)—Reichsmarshal Hermann Goering's fighter force in western Europe is running out of planes or courage—or both—Flying Fortresses and Marauder crewmen concluded today following yesterday's multiple assault on German airfields in France.

Allied fighters which ran interference for bombers drew due credit for fending off many enemy fighters but the pilots and gunners of bombers said what opposition they did encounter was below normal in quality and numbers.

The Marauder crews making their fifth assault on air bases at Poix said they encountered neither fighters nor flak—evidence of the telling effect of the blows delivered against this and other Nazi fighter nests.

Town's Oldest Restaurant To Close Its Doors

Gettysburg's oldest restaurant, Spangler's, on Chambersburg street, will close this evening after 32 years of continuous operation.

Mrs. John W. Spangler, who has been in charge of the establishment since the death of her husband in June, 1940, said today that war conditions make the closing necessary. The restaurant was started in 1911 by Mr. and Mrs. Spangler at the site of the present National garage office. It was moved to the present Spangler building in 1918.

LISTS CRITICAL MATERIALS FOR SALVAGE DRIVE

Richard C. Lighter, acting salvage chairman for Adams county, announced today a list of "critical" scrap materials to be specially sought in the late summer and fall salvage campaign.

These materials are: Iron and steel scrap, tin cans, waste kitchen fats, waste paper, copper, brass and bronze, rags, silk and nylon hosiery and collapsible tin tubes. The list, Mr. Lighter said, was accepted on recommendation of the state salvage committee.

Declaring that great quantities of these "waste" materials must be gathered to keep the state's war industries producing at capacity, Mr. Lighter said:

"Victory Will Be Speeded"

"Especially important is the preparation and collection of tin cans. In addition to increased manufacturing needs, tin is urgently needed for the manufacture of life-saving syringes carried in the kit of every fighting man and for blood plasma containers. The housewife should prepare tin cans by removing labels, rinsing, cutting or folding in the tops and bottoms and flattening the cans by stepping on them. Collection methods are to be established very soon in every locality in which cans previously had not been collected.

"A tablespoonful of waste kitchen fats a day will make a pound a month from every home. Such fats are needed for the manufacture of ammunition as well as life-saving drugs to be used in the base hospitals.

"Victory will be speeded through the cooperation of all the people on the home front, and the collection of waste materials is essential to the winning of the war. We ask the cooperation of every citizen."

CONCERTS WILL BE CONCLUDED

The final of the series of Sunday evening musicales at Brua chapel will be held Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock, it was announced today by Prof. Fred Shaffer, who has been in charge of the programs.

Miss Sarah Jane Sheffer, Gettysburg, soprano; William Black, tenor, and Robert Forney, piano, both students at Gettysburg college, and Dr. Francis C. Mason, reader, will present the program.

The last of the summer symphony programs will be presented Monday evening at 8:30 o'clock on the lawn at the rear of Glatfelter hall.

Included on the recorded program will be "Semiramide Overture," Rossini; "Symphony No. 38," Haydn, and "Scenario for Orchestra," Jerome Kern.

Chiefly because 46 county men and women failed to keep their appointments at the Red Cross Blood Donor station, Friday afternoon, the station staff fell short of its goal of 120 pints of blood for conversion into plasma for use on the fighting fronts. Only 104 pints were received.

R.R. BALANCE IS ONLY $1,200

The balance remaining unclaimed in the hands of William P. Baker, East Berlin, receiver in the East Berlin railroad dissolution proceedings, is $1,200 and not $8,042 as was stated incorrectly in Friday's issue of The Gettysburg Times.

The figure $8,042 represents the sum already distributed.

A court order signed this week, directing that the unclaimed balance be advertised for the benefit of the 52 stockholders in the railroad company who failed to claim their share of the company's assets in distribution, will further reduce the $1,200. The costs of advertising and distribution of notices to be deducted from that sum, according to Richard A. Brown, Esq., counsel in the dissolution action.

Traffic Almost At Standstill; Blast Systems

By NOLAND NORGAARD

Allied Headquarters in North Africa, Aug. 28 (AP)—Southern Italy's entire railway system has been disorganized by relentless Allied bombings, with train traffic brought almost to a standstill, it was disclosed at headquarters today.

The railroads are a kingpin in Italy's defenses. The announcement followed a heavy blast by U. S. Flying Fortresses yesterday at railroad yards at Sulmona nearly 100 miles east of Rome for the first time, and Mitchell bomber attacks on congested freight yards and locomotive works at Benevento near Naples.

At the same time, American B-26 Marauders bombed the rail yards at Caserta also in Naples vicinity, and light and medium bombers including A-36 fighter bombers attacked targets at Catanzaro, Sibari, Cetraro and Paola.

20 Enemy Planes Shot Down

Enemy fighter resistance increased over the vital rail centers, and 20 enemy planes were shot down, Allied headquarters declared.

The worst beating was administered to the Germans by the Mitchells, which sent 16 Nazi planes crashing to the ground out of a total of 40 to 50 fighters which sought to turn back the bombers and their P-38 escort.

Almost two dozen fighters also pounced on the Fortresses which likewise were escorted by Lightnings.

In the Caserta attack, 35 to 45 fighters came up to intercept the Marauders but they were driven off by Lightnings.

The day's operations also included attacks by Fighter-bombers on gun positions near Reggio Calabria from which the enemy has been shelling the Messina area of Sicily, and RAF Wellingtons followed up last night by pounding the freight yards at Salerno.

All the day and night operations cost the Allies nine planes.

SWEET CORN IS SCARCE TODAY; PEACHES ARE $4

The Fortresses concentrated their attack on Sulmona, vital link in Italy's east coast rail line extending down to the heel and toe, in 12 minutes, dropping many tons of high explosives on the freight yards, munition stores, locomotive sheds, repair shops, warehouses, railway cars and the station.

Bomb Entire Line

The entire length of the Benevento railroad yards was straddled by bombs from the Mitchells, with other explosives striking the locomotive works.

One formation of Mitchells destroyed 11 Messerschmitt 109s and two Italian fighters. Another formation got three Messerschmitts.

The Marauders laid their bombs on rail cars, freight yards and repair buildings at Caserta, with their Lightning escorts turning back enemy fighters before they could come within firing range of the bombers.

U. S. Mitchells and RAF Bostonians teamed up for their longest journey over Italian soil to hammer the road and rail junction at Catanzaro, the bottleneck linking the east and west coastal transportation systems in the center of the toe of Italy.

With Kittyhawk escorts, they raked the road north of the town, and set off big explosions, going over in four separate formations. Ground fire was intense, but they met no fighters.

More Opposition

Three other Boston formations bombed gun positions and strong-points at Reggio Calabria.

These two attacks were only part of a series of blows dealt yesterday in the heaviest raids of the north-west Africa Tactical Air Force since Messina's fall.

Mitchell crews hitting Benevento said enemy fighters showed better combat spirit than before, attacking from above and below in teams of two or three.

A Messerschmitt was bagged by Staff Sgt. Celest F. Camagna, Apollo, Pa.

Completes Aerial Gunners' Course

Sergeant Donald Omar Price, son of Mrs. Helen Deardorff Price, Baltimore street, completed the course prescribed for aerial gunners at the Laredo Army Air Field School, Laredo, Texas, on August 21. On May 29, he completed his radio operators and mechanics course as prescribed by the Army Air Force Technical Training Command at Chicago, Illinois. He received his aerial gunners' wings August 26.

William Edward Price, his brother, enlisted in the Army Air Corp Reserve on August 23. He will be a senior at Gettysburg high school this year.

Guard Unit Drills In Littlestown

The county State Guard Reserve company presented a drill and parade in Littlestown Friday evening accompanied by the Littlestown high school band.

The 120-man company concluded its drill with formal retreat on the Littlestown high school grounds after which the group attended a bazaar held by the Legion post there.

Captain C. Arthur Brame announced that the company will meet next Friday at 8 p. m. at the armory.

MOUNTBATTEN SELECTION IS SIGN OF PLAN

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

The extraordinary enthusiasm being exhibited by the Allied nations over the appointment of Lord Louis Mountbatten as supreme commander for southeast Asia is at once a tribute of confidence in his leadership and an expression of relief that, as the Chinese put it, "measures planned for the destruction of Japan are being implemented."

Specifically, the designation of this forty-three year old expert in combined operations—involving land, sea and air forces—is taken generally to mean that at long last the Allies are getting set to invade Burma from India, across the Bay of Bengal. Since America's combined forces are on the offensive in the southwest Pacific, one envisages the application of a pincer movement ultimately on the Nipponese—one from the west and the other from the east.

Small wonder that the Chinese are elated at the prospect of reopening the Burma road, to restore their lifeline to the outside world. They were terribly disappointed that the operation wasn't carried out last winter, as I learned on my visit to Chungking the first of this year.

Amphibious Attack
The Chinese are in dire need of supplies of every description, both military and civilian. It's one of the world's wonders that they've been able to hang on so long. It would be dangerous to bank on their ability to continue indefinitely without the major assistance which can be supplied only by the reopening of the Burmese backdoor.

Readers often ask why the Allies have to invade Burma by sea—why the invasion can't be carried out from India by land. The mountainous nature of the terrain, and the heart-breaking jungles, along the Indo-Burmese border preclude big scale military operations. There are places where small contingents of troops can operate—on the coast, for instance, and up north where a military road cuts through the mountains at Imphal—but the main attack must be amphibious, supported by air.

Superb Base
The youthful new commander for southeast Asia has, in his always vigorous way, flung his six feet four of hard muscle into his new job with a rush. That's good to see, but we shouldn't conclude from the announcements and the preparations that an invasion of Burma is going to take place next week, or next month.

The monsoon deluge, which since April has been flooding Burma, won't be over until October. It then will be several weeks before things dry up to the point where one would expect the Allies to be ready for the attack, if needed it's their intention to carry out the operation this year.

The conquest of Burma calls for an effort of great magnitude. A huge naval fleet—presumably British, since our ships are engaged in the Pacific—will be necessary. And as in North Africa and Sicily, the Allied air fleets will blaze the way. Fortunately, India provides a superb base for the expedition, both in the initial stages and later for reinforcements and supplies.

Stilwell May Be Deputy
"Louie" Mountbatten is a jack of all trades in war, having done his good bit with air, sea and commando forces. Wherever duty takes him—and it's led him through the valley of death more than once—his comrades label him as "a cheerful bloke." One would say that he is the ideal type for such grueling work as will be called for in the terrible Burmese jungles.

Word is being circulated in informed quarters in Washington that Lt. General Joseph W. Stilwell is slated to be deputy commander-in-Army forces in China, Burma and chief. Stilwell now heads the U.S. India and is chief of staff to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek.

If this appointment materializes it should give a fine team for the southeast Pacific. Stilwell is as hard-boiled as they come—a veteran who knows his Burma and China like a book and even speaks Chinese.

FOLLOWS OLD RULE ON SALUTE

Media, Pa., Aug. 28 (AP)—The United States Supreme court changed its mind about compulsory saluting of the flag, but Judge Albert Dutton MacDade didn't.

He followed the high court's original decision Thursday in upholding the conviction of Vincent Cauter, Boothwyn, on a charge of violating the state school attendance law because his two children repeatedly were sent home from school for refusing to take part in flag saluting. "When the instant case was before us," Judge MacDade wrote in a Delaware county quarter sessions court opinion, "the law as expounded in the (1) Cobitis case was the law of the land, and it is that law which we are following in this opinion."

The 1940 Cobitis decision of the Supreme court upheld the right of school authorities to compel pupils to salute the flag. A decision this summer reversed it.

Guard Recaptures Escaped Convict

Bellefonte, Pa., Aug. 28 (AP)—A Rockview penitentiary guard last night recaptured one of two convicts who escaped from the state prison Wednesday while working as teamsters.

Deputy Warden C. C. Rhoads said that Frederick Brown, 26, Tioga county, was recaptured by a guard who saw both fugitives walking along a railroad track near Port Matilda. Brown obeyed the guard's command to halt but the other leaped into the woods and escaped.

TRUCK HITS POLE

A telephone pole was broken off Friday morning near the intersection of the Orrtanna and Fairfield roads when a truck operated by Robert Boyd, Orrtanna, for King's store at Orrtanna, skidded off the highway into a ditch, striking the pole. The driver was uninjured. The truck was damaged somewhat.

Elect Teachers At East Berlin

Two teachers have been elected to the East Berlin high school faculty.

Miss Edna Marie Hipwell, Narberth, graduate of Lower Merion high school and Temple university, will be the new music supervisor and teacher of English succeeding Miss Elizabeth Rinard, Somerset, who has accepted the music supervisory position in Kane high school.

During high school, Miss Hipwell won the American Legion Auxiliary medal for scholarship, was a member of the National Honor society, first cellist in the All-State high school orchestra and state champion cellist. In college she was a member of the orchestra, a cappella choir and ensemble. She was also active in intra-mural sports.

Miss Eleanor Vogt, Philadelphia, recent graduate of Temple university, who majored in physical education and minored in English, social studies and biological science, will replace Miss Edna Sorber who has accepted a position in her home district in Berks county. While in high school and college, Miss Vogt was active in all branches of athletics, having been captain of Temple Mermaids and having played varsity basketball, hockey and tennis.

During her senior year at Temple she was part time physical education instructor at Melrose academy, Philadelphia. During the past three summers she has been swimming instructor at a girls' camp in New York.

The East Berlin schools will open on Tuesday, Sept. 7, at 8:30 a. m.

Armour May Get Welles' Position

Washington, Aug. 28 (AP)—Norman Armour, ambassador to Buenos Aires and a career diplomat, appears to have the inside track in the field of possible successors to Undersecretary of State Sumner Welles, when and if Welles' resignation is announced.

Breckenridge Long, assistant secretary of state, has strong congressional backing, associates said today, but a man with more diplomatic experience is expected to be the ultimate choice.

A possibility arose, meanwhile, that Welles, despite his rift with Secretary Hull, might accept an assignment as President Roosevelt's personal representative in South America, with headquarters at Rio de Janeiro. It has been suggested also that he might go to Moscow on a special mission.

Armour is in Washington now "for consultation" and there was some doubt that he would return to Buenos Aires very soon because of Argentina's failure to break off relations with the Axis powers.

The 56 year old Armour is perhaps personally the most popular of United States ambassadors. Strictly a career diplomat, he has never mixed in politics, but his friends say that he would charm any senator or Long could continue his liaison with congress as assistant secretary.

C-D Workers To Aid War Loan Drive

Harrisburg, Aug. 28 (AP)—Volunteer workers in Pennsylvania's 1,200 local defense councils will cooperate with community war finance committees during the third war loan drive, starting September 9.

Local defense councils also were urged to cooperate in the National Housing Agency's program to improve shelter accommodations in congested war areas.

Pittsburgh, Aug. 28 (AP)—James E. Kelley of Birmingham, Ala., was named grand secretary as the improved Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks closed its 44th annual convention Thursday night.

Chicago was chosen as the 1944 convention city.

Other officers chosen included Judge Edward W. Henry, Philadelphia, grand treasurer; Hobson R. Reynolds, Philadelphia, commissioner of civil liberties; Dr. Marcus F. Wheatland, Camden, N. J., grand esteemed local knight.

GOVERNOR SEES HUGE SAVING IN NEW TAX SETUP

Pennsylvania taxpayers today had the promise of Governor Martin that Republican reorganization of the inheritance tax division would bring an annual saving of almost $500,000, the Associated Press reported from Harrisburg.

The dispatch quotes Governor Martin as saying that the 163 employees lopped off the payroll since the 1943 Legislature shifted control of the division from Democratic Auditor General F. Clair Ross to the Revenue department will bring a saving of $320,682 and reduced administrative costs will increase the total savings to near a half million dollars.

A table showing the comparison between the present number of inheritance tax employees in each county in the state and the salaries they receive now as against May of last year discloses that John H. Bashore, new appraiser for this county, will receive $1,560. His predecessor, Harry L. Cratin, a Democrat, was paid $1,320, according to the figures given by the Associated Press.

The governor told his press conference yesterday, 11 more employees will be dropped in Allegheny county which will reduce overhead by at least an additional $20,000.

A compilation comparing figures of May, 1942, and August, 1943, Martin asserted, showed the division personnel cut from 425 employees drawing an annual salary of $844,362 to 262 workers getting $523,680. He explained that as a former auditor general and state treasurer "I know the job can be efficiently done with this reduced force."

Philadelphia employees were reduced from 157 to 74 and the payroll there slashed from $327,770 annually to $162,450. In Allegheny county, the staff was cut from 86 to 66 and the payroll from $146,590 to $90,690.

In addition to the pending Allegheny county dismissals, the reorganization plan also calls for cutting one person from the Westmoreland county staff and for filling a York county vacancy at $1,200 a year.

Sawing Lumber For New Factory

The Orrtanna Canning company employees are engaged in sawing lumber for the rebuilding of the canning factory to replace the cannery which burned last December.

The material is being saved from the timber of one of the company's farms, several miles east of Orrtanna. C. H. Wolford has charge of the saw mill operations. The company expects to have the building completed in time for the sour cherry canning next year.

New Spotter Post At Littlestown

The new observation post atop the Regent theatre building in Littlestown will be placed in operation Sunday at 12:01 a. m. The spotters to man the post met Thursday evening in the fire engine house. Chief Observer Francis J. Will was in charge of the meeting. He explained further the duties of the spotters.

Those who had not been fingerprinted previously were fingerprinted by one of the assistant observers, Wilbur E. Mackley. The meeting was largely attended. The project is being sponsored by the John W. Ocker Post, No. 321, American Legion, under the orders of the Army Command.

State To Honor Poland Next Week

Harrisburg, Aug. 28 (AP)—Pennsylvania will pay tribute to Poland next Wednesday on the anniversary of that country's invasion by Germany.

Governor Martin said yesterday in a statement:

"In admiration of the brave people of Poland and in recognition of the contribution made by Americans of Polish descent to the welfare and progress of our nation, I urge all Pennsylvanians to pay tribute to Poland on this tragic anniversary, September 1."

State Purchases Bridge Properties

Harrisburg, Aug. 28 (AP)—The state has purchased four vine street, Philadelphia, properties worth $149,000, Auditor General F. Clair Ross reported today, to help provide a high speed traffic artery and improve Delaware river bridge approaches after the war.

Ross, a member of the Delaware River Bridge commission, said "eventually, the bottleneck caused by narrow Vine street through which bridge traffic must flow will be eliminated and motorists will be able to maintain constant speed and reach the parkway without delay."

Eric, Pa., Aug. 28 (AP)—Jacob Otten, 72, Erie foundry company employee for 45 years, was struck and killed yesterday by a passenger train locomotive at a street crossing near the plant.

OPA Nabs Trio On Gas Coupon Theft

Williamsport, Pa., Aug. 28 (AP)—District OPA officials sought federal warrants today for three teen-aged Clinton county youths, held in a West Virginia jail on charges of suspicion after gasoline coupons good for 122,000 gallons were found in their possession.

Ray S. Thrall, district OPA manager, said last night that Sheriff Wright of New Cumberland, West Virginia, told him the boys were arrested after their automobile upset near his town and the coupons were found in the car along with shoe and sugar stamps.

The OPA official said the coupons were taken from the Lock Haven Trust Company building.

Flashes of Life

BUFFALO BURGERS
Price, Utah (AP)—Choice steaks—and no red ration stamps.

State game officials will sell cuts from three buffaloes, killed after complaints they had damaged crops and fences.

COWBOY CHIVALRY
Oakland, Calif. (AP)—A robber dressed as a cowboy approached a soldier and his girl, demanded money.

Cpl. George Groman told him he was cash-less, but the girl offered the $3 she had.

The bandit politely declined, and vanished.

BLACKOUT OUT
Joplin, Mo. (AP)—The Civilian Defense Council voted to skip next Tuesday's state-wide practice blackout.

The council figured there were too many complaints already. A circus will be in town—and Tuesday is payday for thousands of soldiers at nearby Camp Crowder.

MISTAKEN HAUL
Chicago (AP)—A thief who stole a carton labeled "cheese" from a street car didn't save any ration points.

The box contained 450 iron bolts destined for a manufacturing plant.

FARM CAMP CLOSES

Philadelphia, Aug. 28 (AP)—Forty Philadelphia boys who decided to help Franklin county farmers harvest their crops until the end of October were back home today. The hot dry weather had reduced the crops so much that an emergency farm labor camp at Old Forge, Pa., to which they had been assigned, was closed.

School Schedule To Suit Workers

Philadelphia, Aug. 28 (AP)—If school interferes with the war plant jobs of some 15,000 Philadelphia pupils, then school hours will be changed for them.

While urging as many as possible to continue attendance during regular hours after the summer vacation, Dr. Alexander Stoddard, superintendent of schools, said classes would be arranged at odd hours and on Saturdays for those who feel they must work.

Dr. Edwin C. Adams, associate superintendent in charge of high schools, said pupils would receive laboratory credit toward diplomas for their work experience.

GROUP TO TOUR COAL FIELDS

Harrisburg, Aug. 28 (AP)—A Legislative committee set up to study strip coal mining in Pennsylvania today completed plans for a two-day tour of the bituminous fields.

The group will visit soft coal regions near Greensburg, Connellsville, Uniontown and Pittsburgh on Wednesday, September 1, and the following day will swing through northern bituminous areas.

"The members will look the situation over and gather first-hand information of conditions in the soft coal field," explained L. D. Stambaugh, secretary of the joint state government commission (Legislative fact finding agency) under whose direction the committee is acting.

Later, Stambaugh said, the committee will inspect the anthracite fields but no definite date has been set.

The committee, headed by Senator J. Fred Thomas, Mercer county Republican, comprises almost a score of Senators and Representatives who are authorized to study and investigate strip mining and make recommendations to the 1945 session of the Legislature.

SLIDE RULE IS RACE FAVORITE

Chicago, Aug. 28 (AP)—W. E. Boeing's Slide Rule will try to gain recognition as the best of the 3-year-olds still in racing condition with a victory today in the 33rd running of the venerable American Derby at Washington park—a gallop of a mile and a quarter which will pay the winner $56,150 if all seven horses in the field start.

Slide Rule, making his first start after winning the $50,000 Arlington Classic, would boost his earnings for the year to $134,700 if he finishes on top of today's race, which will carry a gross value of $74,700 with all entries at the post.

Packing top weight of 123 pounds, three more than he shouldered in the Classic, Slide Rule was expected to find a filly, Hal Price Headley's Askmenow, as his chief rival. Askmenow, seeking to become the fourth horse of her sex to capture the Derby since its inauguration in 1884, will pack only 115 pounds and will be ridden by George Woolf, generally recognized as one of the country's top jockeys.

The other five entries, all carrying 117 pounds, are Bold Captain, Famous Victory, Alquest, Dove Pie and Kanopolis.

3 INDICTED MINERS HURT

Pittsburgh, Aug. 28 (AP)—Three of the 30 miners indicted on charges of violating the anti-strike law will be unable to appear in Federal court Monday to plead "no contest" because they are in hospitals receiving treatment for injuries suffered in mishaps while working in the mines.

The other 27 will appear as previously planned, according to notification from Harry A. Estep, counsel for the defendants, to Henry Schweinhaut, special assistant to U. S. Attorney General Francis Biddle.

After hearing the "no contest" pleas, Judge F. P. Schoonmaker may decide upon a course ranging from parole to a penalty of as much as a year in jail and a fine of $5,000. The indictments, first returned under the Smith-Connally act, followed grand jury investigation of "wildcat" strikes in the southeastern Pennsylvania coal field between June 23 and July 13.

BUILDING CONDEMNED

Philadelphia, Aug. 28 (AP)—Convention hall, scene of many famed gatherings including national political conventions, has been condemned by the bureau of building inspection "because of the dangerous structural condition of its ceiling." Acting Mayor Bernard Samuel asked city council for $1,500 to repair the ceiling.

ARMSTRONG TO QUIT FIGHTING AFTER DEFEAT

By TED MEIER
New York, Aug. 28 (AP)—The amazing ring saga of Henry Armstrong ended permanently at Madison Square Garden last night and more's the pity it terminated amid boos and catcalls at the scene of his greatest triumphs.

The fabulous career of the 32-year-old former triple title holder came to grief against the flicking fists of youthful Ray "Sugar" Robinson who waltzed to an easy 10-round decision before 15,371. The gross gate was $60,789.31.

Armstrong, in his prime regarded as one of the greatest fighters ever to hop into a ring, retired once before in January, 1941, but changed his mind last year and started a comeback that has grossed him nearly $200,000 in 27 outings.

"I'm Through"
But after the drubbing he took in losing every round to Robinson, Henry didn't mince matters. He emphasized in the dressing room that he was hanging up his gloves for keeps.

"I'm through," he said wearily. "From now on I'll manage Cecil Hudson." Hudson, a welterweight from Los Angeles, outpointed Izzy Jannazzo, New York veteran, in a six-round preliminary.

"I know it looked bad," Armstrong continued, referring to the boos from the third round on. "It's my style of fighting. If Robinson had come in, instead of staying away, it would have been different."

But Robinson, regarded in many quarters as the uncrowned welterweight champion, was content to backpedal and jab, jab, jab from long range. Only occasionally did he cut loose with the two-fisted savage attack that earned him a terrifying reputation. He seemed to hurt Armstrong on these occasions, but showed a healthy respect for his opponent and never followed up his advantage.

Had 300 Fights
Scaling 140 pounds to Robinson's 145, Armstrong chased the Harlem youth from start to finish, but on only two occasions did he get close enough to land some good punches. His weaving tactics from a crouching position made Robinson miss repeatedly, but not enough to reduce his big lead on points.

Armstrong, who started fighting in 1932 and has engaged in approximately 300 fights, is the only man ever to hold three world titles—featherweight, lightweight and welterweight—at the same time. At one time he won 44 bouts in a row.

HOCKEY STAR BACK TO WAR

Pittsburgh, Aug. 28 (AP)—Charles J. (Terry) McGovern, former Canadian hockey star who was wounded three times in World War I, goes into World War II on Sept. 14.

McGovern, 49, ends a two-year effort to get into the scrap when he leaves for Poughkeepsie, N. Y., for training as a petty officer in the Maritime service.

A member of the Princess Pats, crack Canadian regiment of the first World War, Terry suffered bullet wounds in three battles, one of them the heroic capture of Ypres in Belgium.

Wounded a second time, he was left for dead on the battlefield for two days and nights. A bullet in the thigh caused complications and surgeons planned to amputate his leg.

"But I wouldn't let them do it," declared McGovern. "I wanted to play hockey and football after the war." And he did.

A native of Ottawa, he played with the Canadians from 1914 to the Armistice. Then he turned to hockey officiating in 1929, continuing until last season.

He lives here now with his wife and three children.

3 GROUPS MAY GET LICENSES

Harrisburg, Aug. 28 (AP)—Three special groups of hunters can obtain 1943 licenses Monday but most sportsmen will have to wait until late next month.

The Game commission listed the three classes as 1—those who lost 1942 permits, 2—hunters who did not obtain licenses last year and 3—those who wish special permits to hunt antlerless deer.

Deadline for using 1942 permits has been extended from Aug. 31 to Sept. 31 because of the state's inability to ship licenses to county officials before the end of August. The commission said priorities delayed delivery from manufacturers but that distribution of licenses by Sept. 27 was probable.

A commission official said while 640,000 resident permits were issued in 1942, "we'll be surprised under present conditions if we issue 600,000 this year."

Bucknell Booters To Play 8 Games

Lewistown, Pa., Aug. 28 (AP)—The Bucknell university soccer team will open its 1943 eight-game schedule September 18 against the Bloomsburg State Teachers' at Bloomsburg.

Other games: Sept. 25, Bloomsburg, home; Oct. 2, Muhlenberg, away; Oct. 9, Penn State, away; Oct. 13, Army, away; Oct. 30, Muhlenberg, home; Nov. 5, Temple, away; Nov. 20, Navy, away.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
New York, Aug. 28 (AP)—It's hard to blast a fellow who has given fight fans their money's worth as often as Hank Armstrong, but Henery's announcement last night that he was through with boxing, except as manager of Cecil Hudson, was long overdue. . . . We never saw Armstrong at his best, but we'd much prefer to remember him as the little fellow who won three world championships and lost them gamely than as the outworn prize fighter who shuffled around the ring swaying his head like a sea lion begging for a fish. . . . With that weaving style, Henry was as hard to hit as the swinging target in a shooting gallery—and Ray Robinson didn't win any payoffs—manhood medals. . . . The mark was when a fan spotted Harry Mendel leaving the Garden and shouted: "We'd rather have your six-day bike races back."

A BREAK IN THE DYKES
When the White Sox heard that Eddie Rummel had been invited to call balls and strikes for the major league all-stars who likely will be sent overseas to entertain service men, someone asked Manager Jimmie Dykes: "Why don't you volunteer to umpire those North African games? You've been insisting all along you can call 'em better from the dugout than most of Harriette's staff does on top of the plays."

ONE-MINUTE SPORTS PAGE
George Strickler, the National Football league tub thumper, claims he's going to protest the Chicago all-star game because 20 points for the Stars were scored by ineligible players. "Harder and Graham are only college juniors," he insists. "They're not eligible until next year." . . . Armstrong, after seeing what Robinson had to offer, said he wouldn't rate Ray in the same class with Barney Ross. "But, of course, I fought Barney when he was really hot," Henry admitted ruefully. . . . Sticking with tradition, Earl Kuby is getting the Louisville Courier-Journal's 20th annual all-America baseball team contest under way. . . . Best laugh at the Garden last night: When Ham Wiloby won a prelin, Sportscenter Sammy Taub remarked: "He looks better than he did in the amateurs." . . . And from two rows away Jimmy Johnston shouted: "If he didn't, whatinell would I be doing with him?"

TODAY'S GUEST STAR
Charles P. Ward, Detroit Free Press: "Capt. Ray Barbuti, the old Syracuse quarter-miller, recently was discharged from a military hospital in North Africa. He had ty fever. . . . Babe Herman often was accused of having the same trouble but never went to a hospital for a cure."

OVERSEAS STUFF
Ex-announcer Lieut. Dave Zinkoff reports that he reached Iceland just in time to see Pvt. Benny Fried of Cleveland pitch his 15th consecutive softball victory for his outfit. The team needs to win only one more series to earn a trip to England to play the champs there. . . . The big sport in Iceland, Zink adds, is soccer, which boasts more players than spectators. . . . Marine Capt. Dick Belyea, former Penn half miler, is giving track instruction to officers of his scout dive bomber squadron somewhere in the South Pacific. . . . From where "about 80 per cent of the world's tea is grown," Lieut. Frank Wright still is keeping track of Florida athletes. . . . He reports seeing Rainey Cawthon, 1929 Gator grid captain, and Goldy Goldstein, star guard of 1923-25.

WOMAN COACH CONFUSED BY GRID TACTICS

State College, Pa., Aug. 28 (AP)—"Football is a more complicated game than I ever dreamed it was," That was the pronouncement of Pauline Rugh, new coach of the Bell Township High Gridders, at the end of the first of three days' tutelage at the hands of Coach Bob Higgins of Penn State.

Returning to her alma mater for instruction on how to prep her team, whose season begins two weeks hence, Miss Rugh found much that was puzzling. In fact, she said: "Bewildering is the word for it." She spent two hours in "skull practice" Thursday with Higgins and one of his assistants, Earle Edwards, before going to the football field to see the Nittany Lions put the principles into practice. The coaches used a blackboard to illustrate their theories and Coach Rugh took notes.

Watches Drill
At the field, she renewed acquaintances with college friends—and watched Higgins, Edwards, line coach Joe Bedenk, backfield coach Al Michaels and freshman coach Marty McAndrews put a squad of 50 through its paces.

While Miss Rugh continued to maintain absolute secrecy about the "surprise (even to myself)" system which she intends to adopt for her proteges, she evinced much interest in the single wingback, unbalanced line version of Warner play expounded to her by Higgins and his aides.

She was astonished to learn that the tackles played side by side on offensive but grasped the idea quickly when it was explained to her.

Has Few Vets
Facing a fairly tough schedule, Miss Rugh will have only three of the players whom Dom Rich, now at East Pittsburgh High, directed last fall through a season of six wins, a tie and only two losses.

Bell township's first opponent will be Derry township September 11 and the school has games also with Ligonier, Plum township, Preport and Apollo. Negotiations are under way for a couple of games more.

New Coaches Start Football Workouts

Beaver Falls, Pa., Aug. 28 (AP)—Three new head coaches are among the mentors of 11 Beaver county high schools conditioning their squads for the coming football season.

The Freedom Bulldogs are now being tutored by Dick Fruth, succeeding Michael Josephs, who has become physical instructor of Army aviation students at the University of Pittsburgh.

Leland Schachern, formerly at Hopewell township, now heads the Beaver Falls club, replacing Ensign Alex Ufema. Alkappa's former junior high mentor, Fred Milano, took over Schachern's duties at Hopewell.

The season's first game books Monaca at Ambridge Friday night, September 3.

College Graduate Named Grid Aide

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Aug. 28 (AP)—Lester L. Leitzel, a Gettysburg college graduate in 1931, has been named assistant football coach at Mechanicsburg high school.

Former head coach at Nanty Glo high, Leitzel succeeds Harry M. Miller, of Genesee, N. Y., who was named assistant coach at Mechanicsburg recently but later resigned to accept a coaching job at Camp Hill high school.

ROSES RETAIN LEAGUE MARGIN

(By The Associated Press)
The Interstate league's six teams will swing back into action tonight after a series of exhibition tilts and postponements almost brought loop action to a standstill.

In the only league contests last night, the Lancaster Red Roses split a doublebill with the Allentown Fleetwings to hold their two and a half game lead. The Wings took the opener, scheduled for seven frames, 6-4 in the eighth, but were behind in the aftermath 11-2 when it was called in the fifth.

Entertaining the Philadelphia Athletics in an exhibition tilt, the Hagerstown Owls had the American leaguers down 4-0 for six innings, but the Mackmen rallied with four runs in the seventh and five in the eighth to win 9-4. Jimmy Ripple's homer with two aboard featured the belated rally.

The York White Roses gave the circuit an even break in exhibition games when they defeated Fort Meade 13-0. John Holowka held the Soldiers to four hits and fanned nine for his shutout.

A twin bill between Wilmington and Trenton was postponed.

WORRY OVER GOOEY TRACK

New York, Aug. 28 (AP)—The Hopeful and the Saratoga cup, co-features of the get-away card at the Saratoga-at-Belmont meeting, have firm foundations in turf history but it is unlikely that the footing for today's renewals will be that solid.

Bee Mac, two-year-old daughter of War Admiral, was the favorite in the $40,000 Hopeful until it became probable that the track would be off. Her Pappy was a notorious fast track performer and the daughter, owned by Beatrice MacGuire, his displayed the same temperament while pling up a bank account of $38,000.

The gooeey going also is likely to have its effect in the $25,000 cup race where Shut Out, 1942 Kentucky Derby winner, is listed as one of the six starters. Having always shown a tendency to do best on firm footing, Mrs. Payne Whitney's four-year-old may be scratched from the mile and six furlong test for three-year-olds and up.

Princetillo, the Boone Hall stable's three-year-old winner of the handicap a week ago, is the 4 to 1 choice in the cup race, carrying 116 pounds on a weight-for-age basis.

The session today closes the 30-day meeting. A $2,000,000 mutual handle would send the total bet to $45,000,000 regarded as a record.

Eastern League

(By The Associated Press)
With the end of the regular season but two weeks away, it's anyone's guess which four teams will meet in the Eastern league governor's cup playoffs.

Scranton, with a 10½ game lead over Elmira, appears certain to be a championship contender, but the remainder of the field is a puzzle. Granting that any team is likely to do its best on its home grounds, Elmira is in a favorable situation—its lead over Albany is only a single game, but it has 13 home games among its 20 remaining contests.

Albany, leading Binghamton by one game, has eight contests at home and 14 on the road—and the Senators are not a strong road team.

Three clubs—Binghamton, Wilkes-Barre and Hartford—are battling hotly for the fourth playoff berth, with the triplets holding the position by a game and a half over the other two teams, which are tied for fifth.

Binghamton's Yankee Farmhands, scheduled for a doubleheader today at Scranton, have only three more road tilts on their 18-game slate before the September 12 closing.

Hartford, strengthened recently by addition of two part-time home-city pitchers, lists only six games on the road out of 20 remaining contests. Some of these were transferred from Springfield which has become a road club for the remainder of the season.

Wilkes-Barre, a fraction of a percentage point ahead of the Connecticut team, has 12 games scheduled at its own field, seven in opponents' parks.

All of last night's contests were postponed.

YORK NEEDS 4 QUICK HOMERS TO SET RECORD

By JUDSON BAILEY

The Associated Press
A tune most baseball fans would like to hear this week-end would be "the broken record" as rendered by Rudolph Preston York of the Detroit Tigers.

In August 1937 the big Cherokee slugger hit 18 home runs, a record no other major leaguer ever has equaled, and he has been busy bombing homers this month in an attempt to raise his own mark.

For a while it looked like Rudy would make it, too, but time is closing in on the husky first sacker and now he has only three games in two days in which to get four homers and eclipse his previous performance.

Sportsman's park at St. Louis, where the Tigers are spending the week-end, is not an impossible barrier. York bashed two into the stands in one game there June 27, but four round-trippers in two days calls for some expert punching.

Tigers Lose
York was trying for the fence last night as Detroit opened the series but was held hitless by Denny Galehouse while the Browns beat the Tigers, 3-1.

In the only other American league game the Cleveland Indians walloped the Chicago White Sox, 6-2, behind the six-hit hurling of lefty Al Smith and moved closer to the second-place Washington Senators.

Two games also were played in the National league with the Cincinnati Reds edging out the St. Louis Cardinals, 3-2, and the Chicago Cubs stopping the Pittsburgh Pirates by the same score.

The Cards gave Bucky Walters some rough treatment in the first three innings, but after the fourth the veteran righthander allowed only one hit. Max Marshall and Bert Haas made seven of Cincinnati's 11 hits.

Claude Passeau held Pittsburgh to five safeties and was given an early lead by his teammates.

East Stroudsburg Curtails Sports

East Stroudsburg, Pa., Aug. 28 (AP)—Varsity football and soccer have been discontinued at East Stroudsburg State Teachers' college for the duration of the war. C. J. Lijenstein, director of health and physical education at the college announced yesterday.

Lijenstein said cancellations by other schools left only one game on the football schedule, and added that the number of male students on the campus will not be sufficient to promote either sport.

Finding Opponents Tough For Altoona

Altoona, Pa., Aug. 28 (AP)—Altoona high school's imposing record of having lost only one game in the past three seasons is now causing repercussions.

Football Coach Kenneth Bashore told Kiwanis club members this week that opponents for the 1943 schedule have been hard to get, explaining, "high schools prefer playing teams where they have an even chance of winning."

Golf Stars Will Play In Benefit

Spring Lake, N. J., Aug. 27 (AP)—Twenty-five golf pros, topped by Craig Wood, Sgt. Vic Ghezzi, Sam Byrd and Sgt. Jim Turnesa, will tee off Sunday at Spring Lake Golf and Country club in a war fund benefit tournament.

Chairman Robert J. Newhouse said all money will be turned over to the fund.

Greenville, Ohio, Aug. 28 (AP)—Volo Song, Hambletonian victory of 1943 and winner of $43,357.49 in the past two years, will not race in 1944. Owner Bill Stang of Brooklyn said today that the trotter would be given a year's vacation and that the Ambassador, also owned by Stang and winner of 1942 Hambletonian, would be returned to competition next season.

Astoria, Ore., Aug. 28 (AP)—Five Pacific coast conference northern division schools—Washington, Washington State, Idaho, Oregon and Oregon State—have voted to continue football and basketball.

MINER IS KILLED

Waynesburg, Pa., Aug. 28 (AP)—Edward R. (Van) Deems, 42, of near Carmichael, was killed Friday in Nemacolin mine of the Buckeye Coal company where he had worked 16 years as a motorman. He was crushed between a coal car and the mine wall.

War Worker Wins Grand American

Vandaila, O., Aug. 28 (AP)—The most surprised man in the world, 35-year-old Jasper Rogers of Dayton, had about $1,600 with which to buy war bonds today following one of the most amazing finishes the unpredictable Grand American trapshoot ever has witnessed.

Rogers, a warplant tool-maker, won Trapdom's No. 1 prize, the grand American handicap, by defeating five others in a 50-target shoot-off after the sextet had tied at 97 out of 100, lowest score to win the event since 1931.

WASHINGTON TO DECIDE ON BASEBALL TOUR

By DAVE HOFF

Chicago, Aug. 28 (AP)—Baseball's idea about sending a troupe of American and National league players overseas as soon as possible after the world series is going to the War department probably for a consideration of routes and transportation, and bearing the official "OK" of Commissioner Kenesaw Mountain Landis and the two league presidents.

"The Judge" and Presidents Ford Frick of the National and Will Harbridge of the American leagues discussed various angles of the plan for two hours yesterday in the commissioner's office but the tangible results were these two statements in a joint announcement:

"Players, managers and officials . . . have already manifested a warm interest."

"We are hopeful the thing will go through."

Landis thought baseball would like to have every club represented, making up two teams representative of each league but not necessarily the same players who were on this summer's all-star team.

BETTE DAVIS' HUSBAND DIES

Hollywood, Aug. 28 (AP)—The coroner's office ordered an autopsy Thursday in the death of Arthur Frasnworth, 36, husband of Screen Actress Bette Davis and western representative of a Minneapolis firm manufacturing aeronautical equipment.

Farnsworth, former commercial pilot, succumbed Wednesday to injuries sustained in a manner which police said was puzzling. He was found unconscious on a Hollywood boulevard sidewalk Monday. Dr. Paul Moore said Farnsworth suffered a basal fracture of the skull, presumably in a fall, and never regained consciousness sufficiently to relate what happened.

Miss Davis, at the bedside when death came, was overcome by grief and placed under a physician's care.

Detective Sergeant H. R. Johnson reported Dave Freedman, tobacco store proprietor, told him Farnsworth fell in front of his store. Freedman related that Farnsworth uttered a muffled cry and fell backward, his head striking the walk, the police report said.

PREDICTS FAST TRAVEL IN 1948

New York, Aug. 28 (AP)—Pan-American Airways estimated that in 1948 vacationers may be able to travel to Moscow over the top of the world for a round-trip fare of $259.20, using 19 hours of travel time in each direction.

In a tentative schedule displayed at an airways exhibit, Pan-American calculated a traveler could reach Tokyo from New York in 27 hours and 36 minutes at a round trip cost of $373.60, and Singapore in 43 hours flat at a round-trip cost of $580.

Other travelling times and round-trip fares from New York: Mexico City, 8 hours 10 minutes, $110.70; London, 13:48, $186.30; Rio De Janeiro, 19:00, $256.50; Paris, 15:00, $202.50; Berlin, 16:00, $216.00; Honolulu, 20:12, $272.70; Cario, 23:12, $313.20; Bombay, 32:00, $432.00; Capetown, 34:00, $469; Sydney, 42:00, $567.90.

"The tentative schedule," said Reynolds G. Rockwell, assistant advertising manager of Pan-American, "is based entirely on belief that planes will travel great circle routes at 250 miles an hour."

Army Sentry Is Shot To Death

Philadelphia, Aug. 28 (AP)—Pvt. James T. Wright, 21, of Santa Ana, Calif., was shot to death Wednesday night while on guard duty at a pier on the Delaware river waterfront.

An Army spokesman said the bullet was from a .45 caliber service revolver in the hands of Corp. James Halpin, 22, (address not given) but declined to disclose other details pending completion of an investigation.

Deputy Coroner John Gross, who made an investigation for civilian authorities, reported that the shooting was accidental. Both Wright and Halpin were attached to a military police squadron.

AMERICAN TO BE DEPUTY TO MOUNTBATTEN

Washington, Aug. 28 (AP)—The eastern end of a British-American-Chinese squeeze play against Japan—product of the Quebec war strategy conference—is being outlined here at meetings between Lord Louis Mountbatten, new Allied supreme commander in southeast Asia, and American military chiefs.

The itinerary of Britain's famed Commando chief will take him through a round of staff conferences with Army and War department officials today, and after a trip to London, eventually to Chung King to plot the western phase of the war in Asia.

A four-fold objective appeared to dominate the developing pattern for the Allied effort in Asia: reopen the Burma Road, unshackle southern Asiatic sea ports from enemy control, and, ultimately, dominate the China Sea and greatly augment Allied air power in China itself.

Yank to be Deputy

With the whole program obviously involving amphibious operations, Mountbatten conferred today with Navy officials. Secret Thursday with Navy officials. Secret Thursday with Navy officials. Secret Thursday with Navy officials. Secret Thursday with Navy officials. Secret Thursday with Navy officials.

Speculation turned meanwhile on the identity of the American Army officers who will serve under him. It became known that an as yet unidentified officer already has been chosen by the Commando leader as his deputy chief of staff and that the chief of staff will be British.

The name most frequently mentioned for the deputy's job is that of Lt. Gen. Mark W. Clark, former chief of staff of the Army ground forces now commanding the U. S. 5th Army in North Africa, one of this

Just Folks

By Edgar A. Guest

NEVER GIVE UP

Never give up if it's worth the doing!

Never give up if the end be right! If it's a purpose that's worth pursuing.

Go for it, morning and noon and night!

Never give up though your best friends drop you.

Saying that only a fool keeps on. If it be worthy, let nothing stop you!

Stick to your cause till your strength is gone.

Never give up how so oft you blunder!

Failure is part of a man's career. Sink if you must, but don't stay under!

Keep a stout heart and persevere!

Out of their failures and sharp distresses.

Out of the swamps of despair and doubt.

Brave men have come to their best successes.

Never give up while your strength holds out.

HALF-AWAKE PEOPLE

To see a great company of men and women walking through the streets of a great city is quite a sight, but when you realize that only a portion of them are actually awake, it makes you wonder why so many seem satisfied. Also it makes you speculate upon what sort of persons such ones would be if they actually woke up!

People who go on vacations, for example, usually are those able to tell about the rich people or the famous ones they have seen, or that they can describe, or who can tell the story of a great many things that mean nothing to anyone outside themselves. They can talk about the weather, or the food, or the manager of the place where they stayed, but how many come back to the town in which they live, and to the home that they left, with a richer soul? How many come back with new resolves, or with knowledge that looked right up at them from the earth and the trees, and how many of them saw God afresh in the flowers that smiled so silently as they walked over the ground or along the shore?

There is no place, or direction, from which something divine cannot be learned. Each book that you read is a text-book of some sort—but Nature is the greatest text-book in the world. Yet the majority of people never even read its preface! Half-asleep, they consume the time of life.

Orchard and Property Storm Damage Mounts: One woman dead and property damage running into hundreds of thousands of dollars—that was the toll Gettysburg and Adams county counted Thursday in the wake of the severest north-eastern wind and rain storm ever to sweep across this section in at least 40 years.

tore a beautiful strip of thin, creamy bark from the trunk of a friendly white birch tree. I then smoothed it out, and wrote a letter home on it! As I wrote I seemed to be sending a message from the very tree itself—was undoubtedly I did.

Everything in Nature is sensitive. The trees and the flowers both breathe. They look up to the sky, where the warmth comes from. They never look down. Man, however, can look both up and down—up to God and his starry heavens and sunlight, and down to earth, where his life and substance are ever awaiting his interest and his toil. He who is forever fully awake finds nothing about which to complain. He is forever filled with the love of life and all its wonders.

To have lived and learned, with eyes wide open, and fully awake, is to have succeeded in life, regardless of any material advantages or disadvantages.

Riding with Russell

Reg. U. S. Pat. Off. by FREDERICK C. RUSSELL, Member S. A. E.

The trouble some motorists get into these days proves that more than cylinder heads are cracked.

This summer some readers may be troubled with a motor that gets hot only after running an hour or so. Usually this is due to the oil supply getting low. With so many short runs the crankcase fills with diluent which burns off when the car is operated for any time or distance. A good rule is to check the oil before starting, and then recheck it after driving awhile. Chances are more oil will be needed.

About That Light Oil

Just to settle the current argument as to whether or not light oil should be used through the summer season let me put in my two cents' worth. As I see it the manufacturers recommended heavier oils for summer use because they didn't anticipate the sort of summering rationed cars are now getting. It was supposed that cars would travel long distances at high speed. The general trend has been toward lighter oils because of closer tolerances in fitting motor parts, but this has been somewhat overdone. There's no risk of this, however, where cars are put to such limited use. As a matter of fact if the oil is quite light the engine will run more freely when first started up, and that will save gas. But while using light oils be sure to check the oil level more frequently, especially if the weather turns very hot and you extend the scope of your driving.

What to use for lubricating leaf springs is secondary to knowing how these springs were designed to be lubricated. Some springs have soft metal inserts in which graphite is impregnated. Others have liners to cushion the spring, and thus require no lubricant. Still others have spring covers equipped with wicks. Oil is thus sufficient for these. Then there are the covers which help to hold in soft grease. Usually if covers are on the front springs no lube should be used.

Around the Gas Tank

It is not generally known that some production cars were fitted with a conical shaped spring inside the gas tank filler neck to prevent theft of gas. So if you've tried to insert a syphon tube to drain off the tank, not having been able to open up the frozen drain plug, you'll know the reason why. Incidentally it is wise policy to open the gas tank drain now and again. This not only prevents the plug from rusting but permits draining off the water that collects at the bottom. It is this water that helps rust through the tank.

"Someone ought to start a campaign to impress upon car owners the fact that the difference between success and failure with a car usually is one of attention to detailed adjustments, or lack of it. Take the valve tappet clearances, for instance. Most owners think that if the tappets do not drive them mad then all is well. Extreme quietness may mean that the valves are not able to seat tightly when the engine heats up. This wastes gas and power, and warps the valves themselves. Then there is the extremist who doesn't care if the engine is very noisy. He permits so much tappet clearance that the valves never lift as high as they should. This also is wasteful. People who have had trouble with too close adjustments are apt to go to this other extreme."

bottom to the water pump you can be reasonably certain that inside there is a coil spring to prevent it from collapsing. This spring is apt to corrode and break. If this happens the hose, especially if old and weak, will suck inward when the engine speeds up as in second gear on a hill. That blocks circulation of water and encourages overheating. All this naturally will be aggravated if the radiator is partially clogged since this will force the pump to suck the weak and unprotected walls of the hosing inward. When replacing the lower hose it is well to replace the coil spring.

I am not one of those who believe that automatic chokes are wasteful. I concede that they can be very wasteful when not operating properly, but if taken care of they provide economy that is impossible with hand operation, for the tendency in hand control is always to over-choke. The driver is doing the job by ear, or possibly by watching for smoke from the exhaust. But it is a job to be controlled entirely by temperature. Only a well designed, properly serviced automatic choke can do that properly.

Some very unusual things may happen in the way of materials for the post-war car and it is important, therefore, not to jump off the deep end on predictions. There has been some talk about spun glass material being used for seat cushions. Such material would be durable and easily cleaned, but many are wondering if it wouldn't be rather cool business to sit on in winter. Leather went out of the picture for upholstery not only because of the cost but because so many motorists preferred the greater thermal comfort of fabrics. Don't be surprised, among other things, if you should find more wood in car construction. Camera enthusiasts prefer wood to metal tripods because of the former's greater stability. Remember that the Franklin's frame was wooden.

There has been so much demand for continuance of these little chats about fundamentals I am going ahead with them so that all of us can get brushed up on what really makes the wheels go round. Talking this over with a motor-minded friend we got to referring to the clutch as something similar to three phonograph records turning on a pencil. When the records are separated you can rotate one of them without disturbing the others, but as soon as they are pressed together any turning of one of them will force rotation of the others. Electrically, my dear Watson, but plenty helpful when you are studying one of those clutch diagrams.

mentary, my dear Watson, but plenty helpful when you are studying one of those clutch diagrams.

If you hear an engineer referring to "metered flow" you'll understand that he simply means oil flow to bearings that are regulated by metering jets rather than left to the oil's free flow.

"After boil" is a condition where in water around the engine head overheats, boils and belches forward to the radiator top. It accounts for much loss of coolant, and antifreeze.

"Volumetric efficiency" is a term requiring equally technical terms to make it clear, but I think you'll get the idea if I say simply that the efficiency of an engine's intake of gas vapor depends on how much can be packed into the space provided

MONDAY AND TUESDAY
Virginia Weidler sets out to capture the autographs of a quartet of screen stars and at the same time extricate her father from what she thinks is an affair with his pretty secretary, with ludicrous results in M-G-M's "The Youngest Profession," which will play at the Majestic Monday and Tuesday. The comedy of adolescence is embellished by the appearance of five guest stars, Lana Turner, Greer Garson, William Powell, Robert Taylor and Walter Pidgeon, who play themselves and sign autographs.

WEDNESDAY
For the first time since the war began Hollywood has enlisted the aid of the Underground. In particular, Arnold Pressburger and Fritz Lang in "Hangmen Also Die," a thrilling drama revolving around the hunt for the assassin of Heydrich, the Hangman, Nazi protector in Czechoslovakia, which plays at the Majestic theatre on Wednesday through United Artists release, have collaborated with the Czech Underground in Prague in order to give their picture the authentic verisimilitude of history in the actual process of being made! Bran Donlevy and Anne Lee head the cast.

THURSDAY
A thrilling action movie based on the herculean job of building the Alaska Highway, the Alaskan-Canadian road which was so vital to the protection of our northernmost outposts against the Japs, is due next Thursday at the Majestic theatre. It is Paramount's "Alaska Highway," starring Richard Arlen and Jean Parker, with Ralph Sanford, Bill Henry, Joe Sawyer and Eddie Quillan.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY
Bing Crosby who plays opposite Dorothy Lamour in "Dixie." It wouldn't be any surprise to Hollywood if some half-dozen old-time melodies found their way into the Hit Parade. The songs most likely to succeed in this next trick are given new impetus by Bing Crosby in Paramount's Technicolor musical, "Dixie," which is all about Dan Emmett, America's first minstrel man. Six songs of the period when minstrel shows were in their heyday are sung in the film due Friday at the Majestic theatre—"Dixie," "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot," "Last Rose of Summer," "Old Dan Tucker," "Turkey in the Straw" and "Buffalo Gals."

Dorothy Lamour, Marjorie Reynolds, Lynn Overman, Raymond Walburn and Eddie Foy, Jr. round out the cast.

REDS APPROVE DUAL UNIT FOR "FREE FRENCH"
Washington, Aug. 28 (AP)—The seal of Soviet Russia's approval was stamped Friday on one of the first announced diplomatic results of the Quebec conference—formal recognition of the De Gaulle-Giraud Committee of National Liberation as "trustees" of French interests.

The Russians apparently went even a step further than did President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill in welcoming the French committee into the Allied fold as the representative of millions of Frenchmen fighting for freedom.

For the announcement from Moscow declared that the group headed by Gen. Charles De Gaulle and Gen. Henri Giraud would be recognized as the "representative of the state interests of the French Republic and as the leader of interests of the French Republic and x x x of all French patriots fighting against the Hitlerite tyranny."

The Soviet report, broadcast by the Moscow radio, said that the Russian decision of recognition had been handed to the French Committee on Aug. 26, the day the action of the British and United States governments was made public.

Limited Recognition
Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Churchill, however, in their joint statement issued Aug. 24 said that "full reports of the decisions (at the Quebec conference) so far as they affect the war against Germany and Italy will be furnished to the Soviet government."

The United States and Great Britain accorded the committee limited wartime recognition as administrative agency in French overseas territories which acknowledge its authority, but not as a "government of France or of the French Empire."

Similar statements issued by Mr. Roosevelt and the British and Canadian governments, on agreement reached at Quebec, specified that "later on the people of France, in a free and untrammeled manner, will proceed in due course to select their own government and their own officials to administer it."

The Russian recognition, broadcast several hours later, appeared to be full and without qualification.

Tom-Toms Signal Rescue Of Yankee Fliers In Jungle
A Jungle Village in India, Aug. 22 (Delayed) (AP)—Throbbing native drums broadcast through monsoon-drenched jungles today that 18 American survivors of the crash of a U.S. transport plane were making the long journey back to civilization.

(Word reached the United States last night that the party had arrived at a town in India.)

Moving slowly towards this outpost in single file procession were Eric Seavard, Columbia Broadcasting System correspondent; John Davies, Jr., second secretary of the American embassy in Chungking; William L. Stanton of the U.S. Office of Economic Warfare; 15 American Army officers and enlisted men. With them are three air transport command Army men who parachuted to the party with medical supplies and one American member of a ground rescue party.

Several days back along the trail, the body of Co-Pilot Charles William Felix of Compton, Calif., only man killed in the plane crash, lay buried beside the tiny village where the party gathered after bailing out when their plane developed motor trouble Aug. 2 and was unable to return to its base.

The co-pilot was killed, it was believed, when his parachute caught on the tail of the plane and carried him to the ground.

BOCHE TROOPS RETREATING AS REDS ADVANCE
Moscow, Aug. 28 (AP)—Russian troops of the Kharkov region have backed German forces three and one half miles further westward through the Ukraine toward the Nazis' Dnieper river defenses and also have struck due south in a new flanking maneuver, it was announced Friday.

The southward column of Gen. Ivan S. Konev's Steppe army, pounding toward the key rail junction of Lozova, killed some 600 of the enemy and destroyed or disabled 22 enemy tanks, the Soviet communique said. Fighting was reported heavy.

In the Donets basin itself, the Moscow war bulletin said, the southwest army group commanded by Gen. Rodion Y. Malinovsky absorbed frequent Axis counterattacks south of Izyum and southwest of Voroshilovgrad, killing 2,000 of the enemy and destroying 48 tanks. Whole trainloads of ammunition and other booty were captured in rapid tumbles.

Thursday's advances by Gen. Konev's troops west of Kharkov wiped out 800 enemy rearguards, routed two battalions and captured several villages. Numerous enemy counterattacks were beaten down.

The communique gave no information as to how far the Russians had penetrated the Ukraine west of Kharkov. One big goal is Poltava, 75 miles to the southwest on the railroad leading to the Dnieper, which is another 75 miles beyond.

General hospital, was removed to his home here Friday.

A. F. Stabler, Browns Dam, while digging bait to go fishing near the dam, found a set of false teeth which were lost by his wife, while she was swimming more than 12 years ago. They were in perfect condition. Mrs. Stabler died sometime ago.
